Get ready to experience Europe like you never imagined. Hop off in Newhaven, and visit St. Giles' Cathedral where John Knox once preached. Leave enough time to relax at one of Edinburgh's seaside restaurants to enjoy fresh salmon, scallops and more. Explore one of Norway's most picturesque cities as you witness the beauty of the Norwegian fjord and mountains in Alesund. Stroll through the world's most northerly capital of Reykjavik, which brings together quaint villages, exciting museums, a flourishing music scene and restaurants that rival Europe's finest. When you book your 11-day Europe cruise aboard Norwegian Star, you are assured to have an experience like no other.

Ship Information Recently refurbished as part of The Norwegian Edge program, Norwegian Star blends the relaxed Freestyle Cruising concept with cruises to The Caribbean, Europe, South America, Mexican Riviera, Panama Canal, and Transatlantic. Onboard, Norwegian Star features 15 delicious dining options, 10 bars and lounges, a sprawling spa, an always-exciting casino with VIP area, plus tons of fun for kids of every age. So whether you're exploring Europe, sipping Piña Colodas in The Caribbean, or cruising across the Atlantic, this ship offers it all.

Bergen

Note: Map is not specific to your port or tour. Don't use it to navigate back to your ship or tour location.

Charming Bergen will sweep you away with its picturesque architecture and breathtaking natural beauty. Nestled between stunningly verdant mountains and the winding fjords of the North Sea, this scenic town will delight you at every turn. A stroll down the central waterfront will give you easy access to some of Bergen's best landmarks and attractions. Stop by the city's famous Fisketorget fish market to sample fresh seafood (caught locally!) and delectable culinary creations, all of which have made Bergen a UNESCO City of Gastronomy. Mere steps away, the Bryggen wharf, a UNESCO World Heritage site, boasts a string of brightly hued wooden houses and the historic Hanseatic Museum and Schøtstuene. Bergen's natural scenery is well worth a gander. Hop on a cable car or tram to summit Fløyen or Ulriken, two mountain peaks right on the city's edge, cruise through the Sognefjord and Hardangerfjord on crystal blue waters, or take a ride on Flåm Railway, with beautiful views of untouched valleys and streams. Enchanting Bergen, Norway awaits you!

On coastal Iceland, the globe's northernmost capital, Reykjavik, invites visitors to discover its unique charms. This city dating back to 870 AD is rife with natural wonders: geysers, geothermic spas, waterfalls and the spectacular Northern Lights. Meanwhile, the city offers world-class museums, restaurants, shopping and nightlife.

Reykjavik is a popular destination for tourists, with attractions including the towering cathedral Hallgrimskirkja, the steel boat sculpture Sun Voyager, the bustling cafe district Laufavegur, and Perlan, a combination restaurant/planetarium/observatory. You might time your visit to New Year's Eve, when the city is in party mode and the sky is alight with fireworks.
